

more than a half an hour so probably when they finish we should recess until the afternoon. I'm just suggesting that but am--I am now asking unanimous consent that we cease our deliberations at 5 minutes to 11 so we can get the team in here and hear their very important explanation on revenue sharing and some of the other Federalism programs.

PRESIDENT: Are there any objections to the suggestion by Senator Proud asking unanimous consent that when we recess at 11--10:55 we recess until 2:00? Any--are there any objections? Hearing none, so ordered then. Before we move on to some other business that's on the Clerk's desk and take up Senator Stahmer's motion, the Chair does want to recognize 16 Fifth Grade students and 6 mothers that are here from Bruning, Nebraska this morning. They're from Senator Maresh's district. They're seated up there in the South Balcony and their instructor is Melvin Hellbusch. We certainly are glad to welcome you here this morning and we appreciate the efforts that it took for you to come down and visit the Unicameral Legislature. There has been a lot of action here this morning, a lot of good debate and I'm sure you will enjoy your visit to the Capitol city and also to the 10, one of the 10 ranking architectural achievements of the world. Now, we have some business on the desk for the Clerk to take care of. Go ahead.

CLERK: Mr. President, unanimous consent asked.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President: Notice of committee meeting read. Rule change read.

PRESIDENT: Be referred to the Rules Committee.

CLERK: Mr. President, another rules change (read)

PRESIDENT: Be referred.

CLERK: Mr. President, we have an Attorney General's opinion (read). Committee reports read. Unanimous consent asked.

PRESIDENT: Senator Anderson, Monday and Tuesday. Any objections to Senator Anderson's absence? Hearing none, so ordered.

CLERK: Unanimous consent asked.

PRESIDENT: Any objections? Hearing none, so ordered. While the Legislature's in session and capable of transacting business, I'm signing L.B. 177, L.B. 248, L.B. 355, L.B. 395 and in conclusion, L.B. 446.

CLERK: Mr. President, I move for the introduction of the attached bill. Signed Senator Carpenter. It's signed by the members of the Judiciary Committee. It's a bill for an act relating to (read).

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: (mike off)--the introduction of the bill. What this bill does and I think it's reasonably important. I call it to your attention to get your approval also. The present statute which now exists says that you cannot start the construction of any public building on the State level until you have all the money accumulated. If you recall in the last election they amended the Constitution in order to give this body the right to extend these payments over a period of time as could be agreed to by the Legislature. There is undoubtedly going to be quite an effort made to create some additional
